

Charme De L'ile Rose

Cowichan Valley Pinot Noir is used to create a vibrant, balanced sparkling wine with distinctive terroir expression.

TASTING NOTES

Salmon in colour with bright, raspberry, strawberry and rhubarb notes. Dry with beautiful balance and a fine, persistent mousse.

TERROIR

Clay soil over a vast gravel base span the cool climate wine region of the Cowichan Valley. Long warm days during the growing season moderated by cool evenings characterize our unique wines. Our cool, coastal climate and deep fertile soils combine to create one of Canada's most beautiful and unique wine regions.
