Charme De L'île

Charme De L'île (charm of the island) is the regional name shared with Vancouver and Gulf Island wineries for the sparkling wines made using the charmat method and representative of the local terroir.

TASTING NOTES

Straw in colour with bright, green apple and citrus, delicate autolytic character and wet-stone minerality. Dry with beautiful balance and a fine, persistent mousse

Regional Terroir:

Vancouver Island soils are a complex story of volcanic origins layered with marine sediments and gravel carved and deposited by glaciers. Today, clay-loam soils lay on top of this gravelly base.

TERROIR

Between the 48th and 50th parallel with strong oceanic influence, grape growing on the islands is marked by its long sunshine hours and cool climate.

Despite notoriously wet winters, summers are dry and droughts are not infrequent but temperatures typically stay below 30 degrees Celsius. All of the above combine to create one of Canada's most beautiful and unique wine regions.

Assemblage:

Our signature non-vintage blend is crafted each year with a paradoxical goal of consistency and ever greater quality. And all while remaining grounded in a sense of place. It is roughly 80-90% Pinot varieties (Gris, Noir and Auxerrois) and 10-20% Blatter white varieties (Sauvignette and Amiel). Up to 10% reserve wine.
