

Michael Godel

Really tart, direct, plasmic hematic and very red berry pinot noir here with a lithe side and ease of drink-ability that is so very appealing. Avoids the tobacco smoke of many 2018 B.C. pinot noir and what it may not scream about in structure it more than delivers in pure, clean and transparent flavours. Drink 2020-2023. Tasted October 2020.
