

Sara d'Amato

Peppery, a little reductive with lovely notes of black cherry and licorice along with a hint of cedar. Oak has been judiciously used. The length is excellent. A solid pinot noir exhibiting regional character. Salty and fresh but not unsubstantial. Tasted October 2020.

